ST. STEPHEN CITY CODE
CHAPTER 1: GENERAL PROVISIONS

ORDINANCE 14 PENALTIES AND FEES

Section 14.01: PETTY MISDEMEANORS. Whenever an act or omission is declared by this code to be a petty offense or petty misdemeanor, any person violating the provision, upon conviction, shall be subject to a fine in the amount as established by Minn. Stat. §609.02, for offenses defined therein as petty misdemeanors, as effective on the date on which the offense occurred.

Section 14.02: MISDEMEANORS. Whenever an act or omission is declared by this code to be a misdemeanor, any person violating that provision shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine and/or imprisonment in amounts not to exceed the penalties for offenses defined as misdemeanors by Minn. Stat. §609.02, as effective on the date on which the offense occurred.

Section 14.03: NO STATED PENALTY. Unless penalty is expressly provided in the ordinance, the violation of any provision of this code or ordinance contained therein, or any rule or regulation adopted in pursuance thereof, or any provision of any code adopted in this code by reference, shall be deemed a misdemeanor and subject to the penalties for a misdemeanor as provided herein.

Section 14.04: PERMIT AND APPLICATION FEES. Permit, application, connection, inspection and other types of fees or charges as may be assessed by the City with regard to licensing and services shall be accumulated and listed in Appendix A to this Code of Ordinance, subject to change and amendment by the City Council as provided by in the Ordinance establishing the charge. Appendix A shall be revised by the City Clerk to reflect changes in the charges or fees approved by the City Council, but the fee or charge becomes effective upon adoption by the Council. Failure to revise Appendix A reflect a change in a fee does not invalidate the charge or fee, or affect the City's right to assess the fee or charge. Appendix A is for purpose of convenience only and to provide a common registrar for fees and charges.
